

English

The word "English" is written in a colorful, bubbly, cursive font. Each letter is a different color: E (pink), n (green), g (orange), l (blue), i (yellow), s (light blue), h (teal). The word is surrounded by various educational and communication icons: a blue speech bubble, a yellow book, a red pencil, a yellow question mark, and a blue speech bubble.

Performing Arts

ART

The word "ART" is rendered in large, 3D, glossy letters. The letter 'A' is red, 'R' is green, and 'T' is blue. The letters have a white outline and are set against a white background.

PHOTOGRAPHY

The word "PHOTOGRAPHY" is written in a bold, sans-serif font. Each letter is filled with a different, small photograph related to photography, such as a person taking a picture, a camera, or a landscape.

MEDIA

The word "MEDIA" is written in a bold, sans-serif font on a black film strip. The letters are white and set against a black background. The film strip is decorated with various media-related images, including a man in a hat, a man in a suit, a man in a mask, a shark, and a person in a costume.
